

Review of Comments Submitted to SECO on Chapter 11, 2015 IRC & 2015 IECC during July 4-August 4, 2014 Period
ATTACHMENT A
Synopsis of All Comments Received by SECO

Company	Name	Additional Comments
Comments in Favor of the Adoption of the 2015 Energy Code Editions
Sierra Club	Various members (1731 total commenters)	1731 Comments are in favor of adoption
Public Citizen	David Power	In favor of adoption
Energy Future Holdings, TXU Energy, and Luminant	Brian Tulloh	Will contribute to the sustainability of the environment and enable investment in business and communities
Myers Verde Company	Michael Myers	Adoption by June 1, 2015 would be reasonable timeline
Texas Chemical Council	Martha Landwehr	Will save energy and water, protect and create jobs and save Texans money
American Chemistry Council	Michael Power	Will save energy and water, protect and create jobs and save Texans money
Texas HERO	CT Loyd	In Favor of 2012 or 2015 IECC adoption
Polyisocyanurate Insulation Manufacturers Association	Jeff Mang	In Favor of 2012 or 2015 IECC adoption
Responsible Energy Code Alliance	Eric Lacey	In Favor of Update as soon as possible
South-central Partnership of Energy Efficiency as a Resource	Chris Herbert	In Favor of 2012 or 2015 IECC adoption
Frontier Associates	Tracie Cooper
	Steve Spacek	Supports stronger codes and pro-Green practices, requests a stakeholders meeting to receive additional input
Comments in Favor of the Adoption of the 2012 Energy Code Editions
Public Citizen	Various members (539 total commenters)	539 Comments are in favor of adoption of the 2012 IECC* Initiator of the call for letters informed SECO the intent was to call for adoption of the 2015 IECC
Comments Opposed to the Adoption of the 2015 Energy Code Editions
Texas Assoc. of Builders, Austin Home Builders, Dallas Builders Assoc., Texas Apartment Assoc., West Texas Home Builders Assoc., Tyler Area Builders Assoc., Greater Houston Builders Assoc., Heart of Texas Builders Assoc., Temple Area Builders Assoc., East Texas Builders Assoc., Home Builders Assoc. of San Angelo, North Texas Home Builders Assoc.	Various (13 total commenters)	Opposed to either the 2012 or 2015 IECC
Fox Energy Specialists	James Rodriquez	Increased stringency would widen gap of non-compliance and hinder the State's goal to increase energy code adoption

Company	Name	Additional Comments
Comments Opposed to the Adoption of the 2015 Energy Code Editions - Continued
Coalition for Fair Energy Codes, Texas Forest Industries Council, Texas Forestry Association, American Wood Council, APA – The Engineered Wood Association and American Forest & Paper Association	Sarah Hiller	Not cost effective and provides for preferential treatment to foam, decreasing the structural performance
	Steve Champion	Opposes any effort to improve code to more efficiency
Larry Driskell Construction	Larry Driskell	Opposes prescriptive standards, emphasize performance based criteria
Comments in Favor of the Adoption of the 2015 IRC Appendix U: Solar-Ready Residences
Solar Senegy	James Orenstein
Texas Solar Energy Society	Lucy Stolzenburg
	R. Michael Martin
	James Howard	Suggest builders be incentivized for building solar-friendly
	David Cooper
	Steve and Cinde Pettey
	Prakash Parameswaran
Solar CenTex	Howard “Scot” Arey	Suggest some revisions to Appendix U
	John Calomeni
	Deborah Bliss	Progressive and forward thinking, will improve the future of Texas
	Danna Pyke
	Lindsay Reed	Help balance ERCOT load during the summer months
	Richard “Larry” Howe	Strong support
Other Comments to the Adoption of the 2015 Energy Code Editions
Oceanlink Energy	Michael Stevens	Recommends Flux reactor to help with energy efficiency
Cirrus Air	Stuart Tillman	2 emails containing air quality documents